ADMISSION

A SELECTIVE PROGRAM.

Admission is by application only.
JOLT accepts a limited number of dealers in each market.
Every application is reviewed.
Approval is not automatic.
Approved dealers receive a written dealer agreement.

WHO WE APPROVE

THREE THINGS IN EVERY APPLICATION.

An established business that already sells or rents to contractors, builders, agencies or site owners.

A track record in its market.

The ability to quote and service customers locally.

JOLT weighs each application against the dealers it already has in the market and the customers the applicant serves. The program publishes no protected or exclusive territory, no discount and no commission rate: terms are in the written dealer agreement.

HOW SELECTION WORKS

FROM APPLICATION TO DEALER AGREEMENT.

1 APPLY

Send the dealer application on this page: who you are, what you sell or rent today, the markets you cover and the role you want.

2 REVIEW

JOLT reviews every application against the market and the business behind it, and replies within one business day.

3 A CALL WITH JOLT

If the fit looks right, we set up a call about your customers, your market and how you quote and service locally.

4 WRITTEN AGREEMENT

An approved dealer receives a written dealer agreement. Pricing, pay, market and payment terms are set out in it.

5 ONBOARDING

The dealer kit, one JOLT contact, lead registration and your first quotes, so you can sell from day one of the agreement.

AFTER APPROVAL

FROM QUOTE TO DELIVERY DAY.

1 YOUR DEALER KIT

The dealer price sheet, retail prices, photos, videos, spec sheets, lead registration, the BRAND logo option and one JOLT contact.

2 QUOTE YOUR CUSTOMER

Send the unit and the delivery ZIP. A written delivered quote to that ZIP comes back within one business day.

3 CUSTOMER COMMITS

A purchase closes on a Bill of Sale; a rental or lease-to-own closes on a rental agreement. Nothing is built before the order is confirmed.

4 JOLT BUILDS AND SHIPS

The unit is built and outfitted in Gypsum, then shipped to the site. You are paid under your dealer agreement.

THREE ROLES

ALL THREE BY APPLICATION.

	DEALER	LEASING PARTNER	REFERRAL AFFILIATE
What you do	Sell JOLT offices and containers to your own customers.	Place JOLT rentals and lease-to-own plans with your customers.	Introduce the customer. JOLT quotes, closes and delivers.
How you earn	Buy at dealer pricing below retail and keep the margin.	A commission on each rental or lease you place.	A referral fee on each sale or lease that delivers.
Who invoices	You do, or JOLT can on your behalf.	JOLT. Stone Ridge Leasing, LLC is the lessor of record.	JOLT.
Inventory	None. Built to order and shipped direct.	None. JOLT owns the unit.	None.
Delivery and service	JOLT ships to the site and backs the build.	JOLT delivers, services and picks up.	JOLT handles all of it.
Admission	By application and a written dealer agreement.	By application and a written dealer agreement.	By application and a written dealer agreement.
Best for	Container yards, modular and office-trailer dealers, equipment dealers.	Rental houses, site-services companies, contractors with repeat jobs.	Established brokers, consultants and suppliers with jobsite customers.

A business can hold more than one role; the roles it holds are written into its dealer agreement. Stone Ridge Leasing, LLC is the lessor of record on every rental and lease-to-own agreement.

WHAT APPROVED DEALERS RECEIVE

THE DEALER KIT.

- A dealer price sheet for the full line, with your pricing set out in your dealer agreement.
- Published retail prices to quote against: your customer can check the same number on joltrents.com.
- Photos, videos and spec sheets for every unit, ready to send to customers and estimators.
- Lead registration, so a customer you bring stays credited to you from the first call to the final invoice.
- The BRAND logo option: your customer's logo on the unit for $595 one time at retail.
- One JOLT contact for quotes, orders and delivery dates.
- Written delivered quotes within one business day to any lower-48 ZIP.

QUESTIONS APPLICANTS ASK

STRAIGHT ANSWERS.

Is the program open to everyone?
No. The JOLT Authorized Dealer Program is by application only, and JOLT accepts a limited number of dealers in each market. Every application is reviewed, approval is not automatic, and an approved dealer receives a written dealer agreement before selling anything. JOLT looks for established businesses that already sell or rent to contractors, builders, agencies or site owners, with a track record in their market.

How many dealers does JOLT approve in a market?
A limited number. JOLT does not publish the count, because it depends on the size of the market, the customers in it and the dealers already approved there. Each application is weighed against those dealers and the customers the applicant serves. The market an approved dealer covers is set out in the written dealer agreement, not on this page.

How long does review take?
JOLT replies to every application within one business day, by phone or email, and a confirmation email arrives as soon as you apply. The reply says whether the application is moving forward. If it is, the next step is a call with JOLT about your customers and your market; a written dealer agreement follows only after that call and an approval.

What happens if my application is not approved?
JOLT tells you, usually in the same one-business-day reply, and says why where it can, for example when a market already has the dealers it needs. You can still refer a customer by calling JOLT, and you can apply again if your business or your market changes. Nothing is owed either way: applying costs nothing and commits you to nothing.

Does it cost anything to apply?
No. There is no fee to apply and no fee if you are approved, and there is no inventory to buy. You do not need a yard, a truck or a display unit. Your costs are your own time and the business registrations any reseller needs in your state. Pricing, commissions, referral fees and payment terms are set out in the written dealer agreement, so you see every term before you sign.

Do I have to buy or stock any units?
No. Every unit is built to order at the yard in Gypsum, Colorado, and shipped direct to your customer's site. You never take delivery, store a unit or arrange a truck. The build starts only after your customer signs a Bill of Sale or rental agreement and the order is confirmed, so nobody is left holding a finished office that has no buyer.

How do dealers make money?
A dealer buys from JOLT at dealer pricing below the published retail price, sells to the customer at a price up to retail, and keeps the margin. The office line retails from $24,950 to $84,950, so each sale carries real margin. Dealer pricing is set in the written dealer agreement after approval; this page does not publish it.

How are leasing partners and referral affiliates paid?
A leasing partner earns a commission on each rental or lease-to-own plan placed with a customer. A referral affiliate earns a referral fee on each sale or lease that delivers. The amounts and the timing of payment are set in the written dealer agreement after approval. Both earn whether the customer buys, rents monthly or leases to own, so a customer who chooses to rent is still a paid placement.

Is my territory exclusive?
JOLT does not publish or promise a protected or exclusive territory. It accepts a limited number of dealers in each market, and how your market is handled is set out in your written dealer agreement. Lead registration keeps the customers you bring credited to you, whichever market they are in, from the first call to the final invoice.

What should I have ready when I apply?
Have your company name, website and the states or markets you cover, a short description of what you sell or rent today, how long you have served your market, the role or roles you want, and a rough idea of how many units you could place in a year. If you already have a customer or project in mind, add it. The application takes about two minutes.
